1. After talking with the General Counsel, it was determined to ask Mr. Parker, of the Bureau of the Budget, to give CIA the Bureau's proposed language of a redraft of the Administration's training bill which the Bureau hopes might be satisfactory to CIA. It is felt that we should review this proposal before the DCI talks with the Chairman of the Civil Service Commission.

STAT

Mr. Kennedy informed me that the two staff investigators, Mr. Kamerick and Mr. O'Donnell, had returned from their trip abroad and were extremely grateful for the excellent assistance rendered to them by CIA. We are attempting to set up a lunch date for them.
